[ABOUT]

Books – maybe you just need to find the right one...

Authors that have a relationship with God and have been gifted with the ability to write can teach us about our faith through the actions and journeys of characters developed in their novels. Historically acclaimed novels like the Narnia series by C.S. Lewis or The Lord of the Rings by J.R.R. Tolkien provide rich characters and experiences that can teach us a lot about faith, suffering, surrender, and truth.

Expressing to God that we are open to His instruction as we begin reading can put us in a posture of receiving what He has to offer.

[THE CHALLENGE]

Read 'The Lion, The Witch and the Wardrobe' by C.S. Lewis or 'The Fellowship of the Ring' by J.R.R. Tolkien
