[ABOUT]

The idea of going to confession can be pretty scary for many. Admitting our failures, especially as men, isn't something we're used to. There's a lot of vulnerability there.

What if we were able to think about it differently? What if we viewed it as a 'fresh start' or a way to help us become better husbands, fathers and/or followers of Christ?

This isn't a challenge to go to the sacrament of Reconciliation. Instead, prepare yourself by understanding the sacrament and what the Catholic Church teaches. Visit formed.org (use our parish code: 2b924d) and register for Forgiven, a 9 part series on Reconciliation.
